Primary Class.—Certificate of distinction and gold medal to Alice Hawkins, and certificates to Nellie Vincent, Dora Love, Emma Lucas, Mary Reid and Flora Johnson.

AT THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY. -A large number of persons left here this morning in vehicles to attend the commencement exercises at the Theological Seninary, near this city, which were commenced there yesterday and will be concluded to-morrow. The "hill" was crowded with visitors, among them many prominent ministers, in-cluding Bishop Whittle, of Virginia, and Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia. Last night Rev. Dr. Grammer, of Baltimore, delivered an interesting sermon before the Seminary Missionary Society, which was listened to attentatively by a large audi-ence. The reading of the essays by the members of the Senior class took place this morning, and this afternoon diplomas were presented to the successful students. To-mor-row the following will be ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal Church: Priests— William Herbert Asheton, Francis Murphy Pusch, W. Burch, Wm. Stevens Campbell, Douglass Hooff, Duncan McCulloch, John Moneure, J. Green Shackelford, Samuel Alfred Wallis and Davis Miller Wood.

Deacons-John Jones Clopton, Richmond, Va., John Yates Downman, Fredericksburg: James Brown Funsten, Fairfax; Francis Keyes Leavell, Jefferson county, West Va.; David May, Charlotte county, Va.; Henry Deane Page, Clarke county, Va., Buckner Magill Randolph, Fauquier county, Va. Augustine J. Smith, jr., Winchester, Va.

The Episcopal High School having closed. the students of that institution are already, many of them, on their way to their respective homes.

cty of Old Students can obtain them by applying to the Principal, or to Anthony W. Armstrong, esq., their secretary. The gallery will be reserved for their use.

RETURN OF THE A. L. I .- The Alexandria Light Infantry which left here yesterday morning for Baltimore to participate in the Grand Army Republic re-union parade in that city, returned to day at half past eleven o'clock. All the members of the command express themselves as much pleased with their trip. The Baltimore American speaking of the parade says:"

"Virginia had five companies in line, the Portsmouth City Guards and Old Dominion Guards, of Portsmouth; the Richmond Light Infantry, of Richmond; the Warren Light Infantry, of Front Royal, and the Alexandria Light Infantry, numbering over two hundred men. The Confederate gray is in strong contrast among those troops, all being clad in it, excepting the Richmond Blues, who look well in their picturesque and familiar uniform. It may be taken as a favorable indication of the temper of the crowd, that the applause for the blue and gray was equally divided. The few Grand Army stragglers scattered along the line lead the applause for the "F. F. V.'s" in blue and this company of Southern troops-the only one in the Union colors-became great favorites as they moved down Baltimore

The Baltimore Sun says: "The Virginia boys are every inch soldiers. They are gentlemen and royal good fellows too. In passing, the Alexandria Light Infantry gave a marching salute with a roll of drums and dipping of flags, which the President returned by FUNERALS.-The funeral of John Wilson, the young man who fell from the Bonapart House in Washington, upon which he was working, Monday last, and sustained injuries from which he died, took place yesterday morning from his late home, on Queen street. between Henry and Patrick, and was largely attended.

The funeral of Capt. R. Stanton Stringfellow, whose death was noticed in Tuesday's GAZETTE, took place yesterday evening from Green's Mansion House, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the deceased. Rev. Dr. Norton officiated, and the remains were interred in Ivy Hill Ceme-

the marriage of Mr. Harry A. Lennon and Miss Lillie Rudd was solemnized at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of invited guests, Rev. > THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES of Miss Dorsey's school for girls and boys took place on Monday, June 19. The first prize, gold medals, given for perfect conduct and perfect recitations, were presented to Miss Fannie S. Herbert and Miss Ellen F. Lee. The second prize, silver medals, given for per-fect conduct and good recitations, were awarded to Misses Laura V. King, Fannie King, Anne Herbert and Annie Greenwell. The third prize, a beautiful book, for good conduct and good recitation, was awarded to Willie Boothe.

> THE ALEXANDRIA CANAL CASE.-The taking of testimony in the matter of the United States against the Alexandria Canal Co., was resumed to-day before U. S. Commissioner Fowler, when Mr. Rafael A. Bayley, of the Treasury Department, was cross examined by counsel for the city-Corporation Attor-ncy K. Kemper and Judge C. E. Stuart, -in reference to his investigation of the records in the case. Gen. H. H. Wells was present on the part of the United States.

REMOVAL OF A POSTAL CLERK.-Edgar Frazier, of Fredericksburg, head postal clerk on the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railway, with a salary of $1,300, has been removed by Gen. Mahone to make room for one who is more pliable, and more willing to wear the collar. It is said that two postal clerks on the Virginia Midland Rail-way and three on the A. & F. are to be re-moved, and their places given to hungry favorites of the Boss.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—Having sold my interest in the firm of BECKHAM & CO. to J. T. Beckham that firm is to-day dissolved by mutual consent. J. T. Beckham has the books and will settle all firm obligations. All indebted to the firm are requested to make payment to him as early as possible that the books may be settled.

F. A. KERBY. Having purchased the interest of Mr. Kerby in the firm of Beckham & Co., I will close the books as speedily as possible and will continue the general commission business as heretofore, associating with me my brother John G. Reckhar will be opened at the Banking House of Burke & under the firm name of J. T. & J. G. BECKHAM. Returning thanks for past favors, I would respectfully request a continuance with the new firm. J. T. BECKHAM. MAYOR'S OFFICE, Alexandria, June 1st, 1882.

I beg to call attention to the license law which passed the City Council on Tuesday night last.

All persons in the city engaged in any business requiring a license are requested to call upon the Commissioner of the Revenue, Major Geo. Duffey, and take out their licenses as early as possible. The city will require all the money she can get from this source to meet the July interest. I will receive money for this purpose at my office, 27 King street, at any time. je1-1m J. T. BECKHAM, Mayor.
